GC Nexs Capital has on 21 July 2025 initiated a suit against SLG Construction to claim payments under the invoices issued to SLG Construction as follows:

However, pursuant to Section 37(1) of the CIPAA 2012, the disputes may proceed concurrently in both adjudication and court. The pro forma combined statements of financial position of the Group as at 30 April 2026 have been extracted by the Directors from the audited combined financial statements of the Group for the financial period ended 30 April 2026, as set out in the Accountants' Report, which were prepared in accordance with the Malaysian Financial Reporting Standards ("MFRS") and International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

(CONT'D)

2. Basis of Preparation (Cont'd)

Due to its nature, the pro forma combined statements of financial position are not necessarily indicative of the financial position of the Group that would have been attained had the impact of the events and transactions as set out in Notes 3 and 4 to the pro forma combined statements of financial position occurred at the respective dates. Further, such information does not purport to predict the future financial position of the Group.

The Group is regarded as a continuing entity resulting from the acquisition exercise, as described in Note 3, as the business combination involves entities which are ultimately controlled by the same parties before and after the business combination. The pro forma combined statements of financial position of the Group have applied the merger method of accounting.

Under the merger method:

- (i) the assets and liabilities of the acquired entities are recognised and measured in the combined financial statements at the pre-combination carrying amounts.
- (ii) the retained earnings and other equity balances of the acquired entities immediately before the business combination are those of the Group.
- (iii) the difference between the cost of investment and the share capital of the subsidiaries, are treated as merger reserve in the pro forma combined statements of financial position.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains or losses on transactions between Group companies are eliminated.

The pro forma combined statements of financial position of the Group have been prepared for illustrative purposes only and, such information may not, because of its nature, give a true picture of the actual financial position and the results of the Group and do not purport to predict the future financial position and results of the Group.

The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of Shares or Securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the Shares or Securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those Shares or Securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may, likewise, also dispose of any new Shares or Securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new Shares or Securities bear to Shares or Securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new Shares or Securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Clause. For the avoidance of doubt, where the approval of Members is obtained in a General Meeting for any issuance of Shares or convertible securities, including approvals obtained under Sections 75 and 76 of the Act, such approval shall be deemed to be a direction to the contrary given in general meeting which will render the pre-emptive rights above inapplicable. In any case and in respect of any issuance of Shares or convertible securities, the pre-emptive rights of Members are strictly as contained in the Constitution and accordingly, the provisions of Section 85 of the Act in respect of pre-emptive rights to new Shares, shall not apply.
